

SUBMIT PAPERS REPRESENTING THEIR CLAIMS AND AWAIT THE REPLY OF PEACE DELEGATES

Text of Preliminary Peace Treaty Will Be Placed in Hands of Press By Latter Part of Next Week.

Paris, April 19.—The three delegates sent by the Irish societies in the United States to place Ireland's case before the Peace Conference—former Governor Edward F. Dunne, of Illinois; Frank P. Walsh and Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia—called upon E. M. House of the American peace delegation this morning. The papers relating to their requests on the Irish question, the submission of which had been set for today, were handed to Colonel House by his callers.

Paris, April 19.—(Havas)—The text of the preliminary peace treaty will be transmitted to the press on Friday or Saturday of next week, April 25 or April 26, the Petit Parisien says.

The Echo de Paris declares that in case Germany refuses to sign the preliminary peace, a special train will immediately be put at the disposal of the enemy delegates for their return to Germany and the Allies will take military and naval measures to enforce the treaty.

Paris, April 19.—Italy's territorial claims, especially in the Adriatic, were presented to the Council of Four today by Baron Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister.

The fact that Baron Sonnino, and not Premier Orlando, presented the Italian case to the council is regarded as significant because the foreign minister is an extremist advocate of Italy's utmost claims. It was Baron Sonnino who signed the Treaty of London, and he now holds Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau to the pledges made in the treaty.

With the question of Poland's western boundary settled, the Council of Four of the Peace Conference in Paris was prepared today to take up anew the problem of the Adriatic for definite disposition. As a result of the council's deliberations yesterday Danzig, the Baltic port claimed by Poland, is to become an international harbor. It is understood, Poland will be given a corridor through German territory. It is said, so that she may have free access to Danzig. Whether this corridor coincides with that delineated by the Peace Conference some weeks ago is not known.

Another nationalist movement within the British empire may be brought to the official notice of the delegates by representatives of Egyptian elements which are demanding independence for their country. The Egyptians now are in France and are expected to reach Paris soon in an endeavor to lay their case before the conference. Conditions at Cairo are reported to be grave as a result of this independence movement.

Food Prices Lower In Bridgeport Than In Eight Other Cities

Manufacturers' Association Investigates High
Cost of Living—Prices Between Different
Stores in Same City Vary More Than Prices Between Different Cities.

A comparison of food cost in Bridgeport with that of New Haven, Hartford, Springfield, Stamford, Trenton, Newark, Boston and Philadelphia, made by an investigator for the Committee on Cost of Living of the Bridgeport Manufacturers' Association places Bridgeport as the second low city among the nine. Hartford is the lowest and Springfield is the highest.

The investigation was undertaken because the Bridgeport manufacturers wanted to find out for themselves just where Bridgeport did stand, relatively, on the H. C. of L.

The manufacturers engaged a man from outside the state to make personal visits to the retail stores, take the actual selling prices, and report upon them.

The period of the investigation covered the time between March 11 and April 9.

The report of the investigator has been made to E. W. Haskins, chairman of the committee on cost of living, and consists of a summary and considerable detailed tabulation.

Following is the summary:

Where data was secured in larger cities, such as Philadelphia and Boston, the investigator took pains to go into sections of the city which were similar to those of Bridgeport. The investigation was made by one person and the data secured between March 11 and April 9.

Similar stores were selected in each town. Cash stores, cash and carry stores, service stores, chain stores and community grocery stores were the types studied. In this way, by securing representative stores of each type in each of the cities, a comparison can be made which shows conditions as they exist and a fair comparison drawn. Each store was visited by the same person, and the prices obtained direct from the manager.

"After all the data had been collected in a city, the prices on each article were averaged for the city. The prices in the nine cities were then averaged to give an average for the territory covered. With this average price as a basis to work on, the percentages were figured for each individual article for each city. From these figures, the rating or percentage of the average could be found directly. Out of the nine cities, Bridgeport was found to be next to the lowest, Hartford being the only one which was found lower. Springfield was the highest, about eight per cent. higher than Bridgeport.

The range of prices between the different classes was not wide, as large as the range in price in each city between service stores, credit stores and cash stores. "In a great many, if not in most cases, the service and credit stores were found to be from 10 to 20 per cent. higher than the cash stores.

"The stores of Bridgeport compare very favorably with the average for the cities covered. They are cleaner and the quality of stock is at least average or better."

The investigator took prices on over 60 food staples, meat, flour, cereals, vegetables, eggs, milk and butter, canned soup.

The rating of the nine cities, made as described above was as follows:

Springfield ..... 105.31
Stamford ..... 104.42
Newark ..... 101.61
Trenton ..... 100.92
Philadelphia ..... 98.41
New Haven ..... 98.11
Boston ..... 97.97
Bridgeport ..... 97.29
Hartford ..... 96.20

The range of prices for the same articles is considerable. Gold Medal flour for instance, averaged $1.65 for one-eighth of a barrel in Bridgeport and $1.72 in Newark.

BAVARIA HAS UPRISING NOW

Berlin, April 19 (Via Copenhagen)—Bamberg, which has been the seat of the Bavarian government of Premier Hoffman, was the scene yesterday of a strong Communist uprising. The Communist occupied the central railway station, the former royal residence and all the military barracks in Bamberg.

Copenhagen, April 19.—Four persons were killed and 24 injured at Offenbach, in Hesse, near Frankfurt, Friday, when government troops attempted to stop a Communist procession. Great excitement prevailed, according to advices received, and a state of siege has been proclaimed.

Offenbach is the chief manufacturing town of the former Grand Duchy of Hesse. Its population is more than 50,000.

DANIELS GIVES SOLDIERS HOPE

Tells U. S. Troops in Germany They Will Be Home Soon.

Coblenz, Friday, April 18.—(By the Associated Press)—Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, speaking to the men of the Second Division of the American army of occupation this afternoon, told his audience that he hoped the army would be taken home as soon as possible.

"As captain of the ferry boats which brought the American army to Europe," he said, "I wish to say that I have under my command 70,000 American boys who also are clamoring to return to their homes. I have told those sailor boys they would get home, but that, first, they must help get back to the United States the boys who fought in France and Belgium."

Mr. Daniels contrasted today's assemblage with that of the Germans, who stood on the same ground in 1914 before beginning the war. "Their chiefs," he said, "had visions of conquering the world, but America entered the war without desire for territorial gains."

The secretary's reference to the soldiers' return home was answered with cheers, and shouts of "how soon?" were heard. The secretary smiled, but did not answer.

This morning during the review of the division the Belgian order of the crown was conferred on Captain Gaines Moseley, and the order of Leopold on Captain Robert Balke. Both are officers in the marine corps. Thirty-three Distinguished Service Crosses and 65 French War Crosses were presented officers and men of the division.

Following the review, Secretary and Mrs. Daniels were given a ride across the fields to the speakers' stand on a caterpillar tractor. Secretary Daniels and his party will be guests of General Mangin, commander of the French army of occupation, at Mayence, tomorrow.

BALLARD TO ANSWER SOON

Receives Letter From Robinson But Is Not Ready Yet to Reply.

After a week of fireworks in the local Republican party ranks there was an atmosphere of comparative peace today. County Commissioner Frank E. Ballard, who was invited to give up his job as chairman of the Fifth district, admitted today that he had received the letter from Republican Town Chairman Robinson.

"I have no statement to make just now," said Mr. Ballard, "although I may have something to say later." Chairman Robinson had not returned from Boston this morning so his views on the latest news from the Ballard camp could not be obtained.

Leo M. Whalen, formerly of this city and well known on the vaudeville stage throughout the country as the "Irish Comedian," has sent a friend in this city two souvenirs from Germany, where he is now stationed as a K. O. C. entertainer. One is a fob with a German war cross as the emblem and another is a cigarette case with the war cross in the upper left corner.

Say Bank Official Was Going Slowly When Krolchi Fell

That Secretary Earle B. Hoskins of the Bridgeport Morris Plan bank was driving very slowly when Nicholas Krolchi fell from the running board of his automobile, was the testimony of Alfred Flood, 394 Capital avenue, who appeared before Coroner Phelan today. The witness said he saw Krolchi step from the running board, despite Hoskins' warning for him to stop. Hoskins had previously testified that he had given the man a ride on Brooklawn avenue last Thursday and supposed the man was getting off when the accident happened. Krolchi was so badly injured by his fall that he died a short time later. The coroner has not yet made a finding in the case.

ATTY. GENERAL GREGORY BACK

Returns From France Hopeful That Peace Treaty
Will Be Satisfactory.

New York, April 19.—Thomas W. Gregory, former attorney general, who accompanied President Wilson to France as an unofficial adviser on matters connected with the Peace Conference, returned here today, a passenger on the transport Von Steuben.

Speaking of the conference and the terms of the forthcoming treaty, Mr. Gregory said he returned entirely satisfied, and that in his opinion the agreements arrived at would be satisfactory to the majority of the people of the United States.

Mr. Gregory asserted that President Wilson's popularity abroad had not waned. The President's present stay in France, however, had been that of a worker, he said, without the acclaim attending his first visit.

CITY APPEALS BRIDGE AWARDS

City Attorney Asks Supreme Court to Rule on Grand St. Case.

Whether the Superior court erred in holding that the city of Bridgeport did not have sufficient reason to end its contract with the E. DeVoe Tompkins Inc. for the construction of the Grand street bridge, is one of the questions City Attorney William J. Crowley has asked the Supreme Court of Errors to decide. He filed in the Superior court today his request for a finding and mentioned 21 questions of law which he asks the Supreme court to rule upon.

The city attorney's request for a finding has been sent to Judge Carl Foster, counsel for the Tompkins corporation, who will have a week in which to file his answer. Then both papers will be sent to Judge Haskins, who heard the case in the Superior court. All this procedure is preliminary to getting the city's appeal before the Supreme court. Judge Haines gave the Tompkins corporation damages of $191,728 for the dispute arising over the construction of the Grand street and East Washington avenue bridges.

Mrs. Crosby Learns Her Son Frank Is In French Hospital

Mrs. Fannie Crosby, the leading spirit in the Bridgeport Comfort club, which has been comforting returned soldiers and sailors passing through Bridgeport at the Bridgeport station, was herself in need of comfort today when she learned that her son, Frank Hastings Crump, of the 102nd Ambulance Company, did not arrive in Boston with the rest of his company.

He is in a base hospital in Dijon, France, having been stricken with fever about a week before the company sailed.

When Mrs. Crosby received the telegram from Dick Barlow from the Winifredian, which caused the Bridgeport delegation to go to Boston ahead of time, Mrs. Crosby's daily misgivings were confirmed.

Mrs. H. C. Stevenson, went to Boston to welcome her brother on his arrival. Mrs. Stevenson is still in Boston.

Major Wood Falls In Ocean Trying to Fly Over Sea

Among the Bridgeport boys who registered with the Winifred Home committee in the 102nd Ambulance Company chambers at 133 Ash street, this morning, was a veteran of four enlistments in the U. S. Army, who in the present war saw service on practically every important front, from the fields of Flanders to Denain, fighting in and about St. Mihiel.

He is William DeForest, of 41 Sterling place, and as a member of Battery C, 66th Coast Artillery, he fought at Chateau Thierry, Marne, Argonne, St. Mihiel, Verdun, Flanders and Alsace Lorraine. He was once incapacitated on, as the result of mustard gas at St. Mihiel.

SWEENEY DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Duel Between Fellow Workmen Has Fatal Termination for Both.

As a result of bullet wounds received during a pistol duel on March 18, Michael Sweeney of 44 Clinton avenue died at St. Vincent's hospital, this morning. Blood poisoning first developed in the arm and the infection spread rapidly.

Sweeney was under arrest charged with the killing of Thomas E. Pendagast of West avenue. Both men were employees of the Harvey Hubbell Co. at State street and Westview avenue, as watchmen. Jealousies arose through their duties.

On the morning of March 18, Pendagast approached Sweeney and said, "You're a damned nuisance, if you don't look out I'll plug you." Witnesses testified before the coroner that Pendagast fired the first shot which pierced Sweeney's hand. A second shot from Pendagast's pistol wounded Sweeney in the leg. Sweeney returned the fire and sent a bullet through Pendagast's heart causing instant death to the latter.

Sweeney was taken to St. Vincent's hospital where his wounds were attended to. It was supposed that he was recovering until blood poisoning was discovered. His death, however, was somewhat of a surprise.

The city court was notified of the death this morning and the case was nolle.

Sweeney was 52 years of age. He is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mae, Josephine and Anna, and two sons, John and Michael, a sister, Mrs. Margaret Frendegast, and a brother, John Sweeney. He was a member of the A. O. H. No. 1, Fraternal Order of Eagles and Macabees No. 3.

HOPE TO SETTLE 'PHONE STRIKE

President Wilson Cables
That He Will Not Interfere in Matter.

Paris, April 19.—President Wilson this morning cabled Secretary Tumulty declining a request he had received from New England governor to intervene in the telephone strike in New England. The President said he felt he could not act intelligently at this distance.

Boston, April 19.—Hope of an early adjustment of the strike of telephone workers which has crippled the service throughout most of New England since last Tuesday, rested today on a conference at the city hall between Mayor Andrew J. Peters and representatives of the union operators. Mayor Peters returned early in the day with a message to the strikers from Washington where he conferred yesterday with Postmaster General Burleson and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President. Before leaving Washington he expressed himself as "very hopeful" but declined to indicate the nature of his proposal to the strikers.

Meanwhile the young women telephone operators, whose walkout to enforce demands for wage increases and the principle of collective bargaining precipitated the strike which spread until it involved 20,000 workers in various branches, held their daily mass meetings, and members of the New England joint council of telephone workers planned to go into session later in the day.

Washington, April 19.—Assistant Postmaster General Keons, chairman of the wire control board, left for Boston late last night to participate in conferences looking to settlement of the New England telephone strike. His presence was deemed necessary in connection with the proposal to be laid before the strikers which Mayor Peters carried to Boston from Postmaster General Burleson. The nature of the proposal has not been made public here.

In a brief statement to the committee, he said that no action had been taken heretofore by the department in relation to the strike because the suspension of telephone service had hampered communication between Boston and Washington.

Mr. Keons said that before taking definite action, he wished to look into the financial condition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. It was arranged that the committee should go to the office of General Manager Driver of the telephone company for a conference with Mr. Keons and Mr. Driver at 3:30 this afternoon. After leaving the mayor's office, the proposed representatives visited the offices of the telephone company.

MUST GET IN CLAIMS.

All contractors having claims on account of the suspension or cancellation of contracts with the War Department, whether formal or informal, may have them adjusted by the existing local boards. Such claims must be submitted to the boards prior to May 15. After that date the method of handling these claims will necessarily be changed because of the impossibility of continuing the present personnel. The local claims board is located at 943 Main street.

Bridgeport's Share Of Tickets For Parade Of 26th To Be About 400

General Edwards Makes This Announcement Today—Mayor Will Occupy Seat in Official
Stand in Front of State House on Beacon Hill.

Boston, April 19.—Bridgeport's share of tickets for the big parade to be held in this city next Friday in honor of the returned 26th Division, which is expected to arrive here today on the United States Battleship New Jersey, will not exceed 400, according to announcement made today by General Clarence Edwards, Commander of the 26th Division of the Northeast, and the Boston committee, which is in charge of the celebration.

The total allotment of tickets for Connecticut is 8,000. Of that number New Haven has been assigned 1,000; Hartford 1,000. Waterbury will get 400. Other allotments were made known here through Connecticut authorities who are in Boston to greet their returning soldiers and who will have charge of the distribution of tickets.

Major Clifford Wilson of Bridgeport, who has been making his headquarters at the Copley-Plaza hotel in Back Bay section of the city since the 24th Division began arriving here, will occupy a seat in the official reviewing stand in front of the State House on Beacon Hill. The board of aldermen, a majority of the members of which were here to welcome the 102nd Ambulance company yesterday, will come to this city in a body. Seats have been allotted the aldermen and heads of various departments.

MAJOR STEVENS, NOT MAJOR ADAMS ARRIVES ON THE WINIFREDIAN

By ROGER FERRI,
Special Correspondent of The Times-
Farmers.

Boston, April 19.—Bridgeporters who remained here today pending the arrival of several other transports bringing back more members of the 26th Yankee Division, today were planning another big reception such as that which was accorded members of the 102nd Division, who arrived yesterday on board the Winifredian.

Many and peculiar were the scenes that were enacted on the spacious Commonwealth wharf here yesterday during the disembarkation of the big ship. It was the rush of people to and fro, the glimpse of some one they loved dearly.

As the Bridgeport boys one by one walked down the gangplank shouts of "There goes Joe" and "There goes Harry" etc., filled the air.

Suddenly there was a scramble of newspapermen for a group of officers. "There is Maj. Adams," shouted a Bridgeporter.

Immediately there was another rush and the officer came face to face with a group of hungry news seekers.

"How do you do, Major," greeted the scribbles.

"Fine, well, thank you," returned the Major.

While the writer was interviewing the Major, the other newspapermen representing Boston newspapers, "grabbed" the other officers.

But the interviews were all brief and within ten minutes after the reception, the scribbles hurried to the nearest telegraph office to "catch" the editions.

Upon returning a member of Mayor Peter's reception committee walked over to the newspaper writers and said:

"Boys, I want you to meet some one who can give you a good story." The boys needed no second invitation. They rushed with the kind gentlemen.

As the approached the Major, the committeeman spoke.

"Gentlemen, meet Major Stevens!" "Major Stevens!" exclaimed the boys in unison.

"Yes, what's the matter?" "Why, we understood him to be Major Adams," and with that the crowd rushed to the telegraph and newspaper offices. Off went the wire carrying the correction, but too late, for editions had gone to press.

The fact of the matter is that Major Adams is a passenger on the U. S. Battleship New Jersey, that will arrive here probably Tuesday morning. This is also carrying a number of Connecticut men.

BRIDGEPORT BOYS HAPPY ON ARRIVAL AT DEVENS FOR DISCHARGE

Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., April 19.—Joy reigned supreme here today among the recently returned members of the 26th Yankee Division, for word officially was passed out that the soldiers will be given their discharges immediately after the big demonstration in Boston on next Friday afternoon.

General Edwards, commanding the Department of the Northeast, was expected to come here today, for the purpose of personally talking to his old division. And the boys are anxious to have their old commander with them for his lastened departure from France upon orders from the War Department will never be forgiven by New England's gallant sons.

Thanks, too, the boys owe General Edwards, for it was through an order issued through him that about 11 Bridgeporters will be able to spend their Easter Sunday with their loved ones back home. A majority of those who have been granted leaves will start for Bridgeport this afternoon. Others will not be able to go until tomorrow morning. However, all have been given from 48 to 72 hours leave.

The program for the coming week is one that is easy in comparison to the work the men have done on the other side. The boys are particularly anxious to return to civilian life.

More than 75 per cent. of the Bridgeport members of the 26th Division upon their arrival here disembarked without a cent. More than half of that number is still without money. They are anxious to don their civilian togery, for as one said, "I feel so much more at ease in civilian clothes, but in doing so he has made us broke. We must get out and make money—and make it at once."

Financially the 26th Division arrived in a destitute condition and were it not for the fact that liberal relatives and friends came to their rescue with funds a majority of them today would not have had money with which to pay their fares home.

MAYOR WILSON IN BOSTON TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS FOR CHEERERS

Boston, April 19.—With practically all of Bridgeport's members of the gallant 26th Yankee Division back from France and now awaiting demobilization at Camp Devens, the attention of Mayor Wilson and other prominent and representative Bridgeporters housed here today was diverted to making preparations for the reception of the Park City heroes following the parade that will be held here next Friday afternoon.

Arrangements have been completed for the reservation of a section of the stands on the southerly side of the Common, facing Tremont street. This section, capable of seating about 9,000 people, will be known as the "Connecticut Stand." Work on constructing this stand will begin next Monday afternoon.

Bridgeporters who have come here for the purpose of welcoming their heroes are not at all satisfied with the method utilized in the distribution of tickets. They claim that they are being discriminated against. In this charge they are supported by residents from Rhode Island, New Hampshire and Maine, who claim that the allotment, in proportion to that set aside for Massachusetts, is exceedingly small.

While it has been announced time and again the Bridgeporters who desire to view the parade must secure tickets through their local committee, Mayor Peters informed the Times-Farmers correspondent, through Secretary Casey, that he has received no less than 100 applications for reservations from relatives and friends of the soldiers. These, Mr. Casey said, have either been returned or turned over to the Bridgeport committee. It is doubtful if these applications will be honored, however, because of their tardiness. Tickets will be mailed out to the fortunate ones Monday morning at the latest.

IMPAIR MORALE OF BOLSHIEVIKI

Troops Want to Leave
Front—Officers Hold
Them With Guns.

Archangel, Thursday, April 17.—(By The Associated Press).—The Bolshievi have evacuated the town of Bolshie Ozerki, according to peasants who fled to the Allied lines yesterday. The enemy was evidently driven out by the constant shelling to which the soldiers were subjected. The Bolshievi are reported to have established positions in the woods nearby.

This bombardment, together with a shortage of supplies due to the thawing roads leading south from Bolshie Ozerki, who were reported to be with the troops, wanted to leave the front but that the Communist officers were holding them in place with machine guns posted along the road in the rear.

The enemy's guns from near Bolshie Ozerki shelled the Russo-Allied positions last evening for 20 minutes without causing any casualties. The other sectors are generally quiet.

F. A. MacDonnell Is Given Reception

Frank A. MacDonnell, for the past three years manager of the periodical department of the Bridgeport News Co., was given a farewell reception last night by employees, who presented him with a Knight of Columbus.

The presentation was made by Mayor A. P. Tillingshast of the city. Mr. MacDonnell recently resigned his position and left today for his home in Springfield, Mass. Those who witnessed the presentation were Mr. Florence Hughes, Mrs. A. P. Tillingshast, Joseph A. Kiernan and Miss Elizabeth M. Connelly.

Ozerki, who were reported to be with the troops, wanted to leave the front but that the Communist officers were holding them in place with machine guns posted along the road in the rear.

The enemy's guns from near Bolshie Ozerki shelled the Russo-Allied positions last evening for 20 minutes without causing any casualties. The other sectors are generally quiet.
